

Of Interest to Women

CHARMS OF NEW HATS

Even the Most Prosaic Soul Could Not Resist Them.

The tissue of the life to be
We weave with colors all our own,
And in the field of Destiny
We reap as we have sown.

—Whittier.

Money Received

Mrs. M. of Southport, Conn., has sent $5 to be used for Sunshine work; Miss Sarah Hopewell, of New Jersey, $3 for the consumptive boy; C. E. M., of Mill Neck, Long Island, $2 for the coal fund; J. S. J. $1 whenever needed, and stamps for postage fund; Mrs. H. E. Eason, 20 cents for mem-and a moderate salary will meet her needs. Letters may be addressed to the Tribune Sunshine office.

A Pleasant Birthday.

Mrs. A. M. Mansfield, of Norfolk, Conn., sends hearty thanks for many pleasing birthday gifts. She received one hundred postcards, four books, a handkerchief and other greetings. The birthday date of Mrs. Kate Bush, Park Ridge, N. J., was omitted in a former notice. She is eighty-nine years old to-day, but any greetings sent this week will be as acceptable as if they had reached her earlier. Mrs. Lyman, president of the Hester White Memorial branch, to which Mrs. Bush belongs, says: "This dear old lady is a rare sunbeam here; self, always having a cheery word for every one who comes her way, with never a complaint."

Crippled Children Please.

President of the T. S. S.: I received the fifty valentines from Vermont for our little cripples. They were simply delighted with them. I wish you could have seen them all; they were going home, each with his or her valentine carried so carefully in

THE AUCTION OFFERINGS

Many Tenement House Properties on the List.

Parcels to be sold at auction at the Real Estate Exchange salesrooms, Nos. 14 and 16 Vesey street, this week, are mostly tenement house holdings offered by executors and trustees of estates.

An attractive site, one which will doubtless occasion lively bidding, is a four story dwelling house at No. 35 West 57th street, on a plot 25x100 feet, owned by the Julius L. Loeb estate, to be sold on Thursday at the stand of Joseph P. Day. The latter will also sell for the Christie estate two two-story houses in close dwelling houses in Boscombe avenue, in close proximity to the 181st street subway station.
